Butler heads to Gateway

Rick Ware Racing's Brett Butler is confident and he is ready. The Georgia native is coming off a 18th place finish at Iowa Speedway this past weekend and is starting to put a string of solid runs together as he pushes his way towards the top 15 in drivers championship standings.

"Things are really starting to come together here at RWR. The trucks are getting faster and with every lap of experience, I get more comfortable and confident," stated Butler.

Butler will be piloting his traditional Fuel Doctor USA #47 paint scheme for the CampingWorld.com 200 at Gateway International Raceway on Friday July 16th.

“The Green Machine is becoming a staple in the NASCAR Camping World Truck Series and in different series of racing as well. Our team is supporting the green concept and our Fuel Doctor USA Chevy is leading the charge!”

Brett will begin the weekend with practice on Friday at 12:00pm and 1:45pm with qualifying set for 6:30pm on SPEED. The green flag will wave for the Campingworld.com 200 at 9:00pm EST which will air live on SPEED as well.

Brett will be joined by his newest team mate, Jeffrey Earnhardt in the #6 Fuel Doctor USA Chevy for a autograph signing at 3:15pm on Friday and will hand out Fuel Doctor shirts to the first 350 fans in attendance.

Also don't forget to cast your vote daily for Brett Butler for the 2010 NASCAR Camping World Truck Series Most Popular Driver contest.
